

Security\Electronic Locking Hardware Services Technician

Job Description:

Responsible for installing security systems such as access control, video management, intrusion detection, door intercom, electronic door hardware, and other related systems and devices.

Communicate with security team in all aspects to complete fully functional security systems.

Position may require some limited troubleshooting and programming of the security systems.

Terminating and testing of security cables and devices.

Helps in the installation of security associated pathways. Including, but not limited to: installing ladder rack, basket tray and or D-rings.

Must understand and follow company and jobsite safety rules and procedures.

Helps in the pulling and installation of the security cable (cat5e, cat6, cat6a, coax, and security).

Do daily jobsite clean-up.

Installation of all types of electronic door hardware (electric strikes, maglocks, electronic exit devices, etc.)

The qualifications the ideal candidate will have include:

Certification from recognized institutions and various equipment manufacturers is preferred.

4 years' experience installing electronic locking hardware.

Attention to detail and takes ownership of work.

Excellent driving record.

Contributes to team efforts by accomplishing results in a timely manner.

Professionally communicates with customers on project status and maintains professional appearance.

Although the majority of the company's work will be in the greater Denver Metro area, some travel could be required from time to time. Although is it not the norm, some evening and weekend work could also be required. Must be able to lift 60lbs. and feel comfortable working on tall ladders or a lift up to 25-30 feet.